Hancock County

Central High School will be open to the public for the first time at an open house on Monday, April 21. The date was announced by Supervising Principal A. Webb following a joint meeting of the faculty and the Hancock County School Board at the new school on Tuesday.

The new buildings will be open for inspection beginning at 10 a. m. The Open House will conclude with a basketball game in the evening featuring a combined Kilm-Sellers team playing Pelahatchie High School in North Central's new gym. School buses in the district will run their regular routes for school children and patrons wishing to visit the new school and see the game. Buses will be scheduled so as to arrive at the school in time for the preliminary "B" game scheduled for 7 p. m.

Principal Webb stated in his announcement that officials and faculty members will be on duty at the school during the Open House hours to greet the patrons and the public. No formal program is planned, but refreshments will be served in the school's cafeteria. Guides will be available to conduct parties through the plant.

The new facility features the most recent developments in educational engineering, and officials at the new school and the County Board of Education are particularly anxious for the public to visit the school.

North Central coach James Johnson says that the combined Kilm-Sellers team will represent the material available at the new school for next year. Friday's game should be a top attraction since the Pelahatchie team won South Mississippi, and placed third in the state in Class B-BB competition. Both Kilm and Sellers advanced to the finals in South Mississippi last season. Admission to the game will be 25c and 50c with the proceeds going to the North Central Athletic Fund.

Tuesday's meeting was the first held in the new school. County officials present were Supt. E. E. Breland, Mrs. E. C. McDonald, Sr., president of the County Board, and Board members Alton Kellan, S. F. Powell, and Charles B. Murphy.

Power Company Manager Charged In Assault Case; Trial Set For Monday

Trial of A. H. Gregory, local manager of the Mississippi Power Company, on a charge of assault and battery with intent, assault and battery and disturbing the peace, has been set for Monday, April 20, at 10 a. m. in Justice of the Peace Neilus Rhodes' Court.

Charges were filed against Gregory by Delmer Wilcox of Wilcox Electric Company, Waveland. Summons were served April 16 by Herman Mazarakis, constable ordering Gregory to appear in Justice of the Peace Court Monday.

Wilcox stated charges were made after he and Gregory were engaged in a discussion Wednesday morning concerning wiring installation in a new place of business in Waveland, which Gregory refused to hook up.

Wilcox said he told Gregory, "He was going to the President of the Mississippi Power Company and get the mess straightened out once and for all."

According to Wilcox, as he started to walk away Gregory struck him in the abdomen and pulled a knife and said, "I will cut your d--- m guts out."

Workmen on the job made Gregory put the knife down and stopped the fight.

Wilcox said "He did not lay a hand on Gregory."

After Gregory left the place he said Gregory reportedly ordered the company's employees to hook up the installation.

In an interview with Wilcox Thursday he said, "If the installation was wrong, as Gregory said, it should never have been ordered hooked up under any circumstances."

Mr. Gregory, when contacted for comment on the above alleged altercation, said, "I deny all the charges made against me by Mr. Wilcox," and that "I will see him in court."

Philips Answers Comm. John Smith

APRIL 3, 1959

Mr. John D. Smith
State Highway Commission
Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Mr. Smith:

I received a copy of the letter which you sent to Mr. Quint and I was rather disappointed to see in the third paragraph of your letter the statement that Highway 90 will be practically abandoned when the new program is put into effect. It is also noted that in paragraph two of your letter, you state that you do not know when the work will begin on Interstate Highway No. 10 in this area, as this road was planned to be built in a period ranging from thirteen to seventeen years.

As you doubtless remember, I have discussed with you the problem on Highway 90 in our area on numerous occasions, and when the entire program was discussed it was my understanding that Highway 90 across Jackson County would be completed to four lanes, a four lane bridge put over Back Bay of Biloxi and that U. S. Highway 90 in Hancock County would be four lanes at least to its intersection with Highway No. 43, with a view toward ultimately building a four lane highway to the interchange with the proposed new super highway, where it intersects Highway No. 43. The entire view in mind being, that a scenic route would be established along the coast, allowing people to leave the super highway in the vicinity of Pascagoula and drive along the Mississippi Gulf Coast and then re-enter the U. S. Super Highway at the interchange with Mississippi Highway 43. I can certainly realize that we have a small amount of money available, however, when you consider the fact that this highway will be used for the next thirteen to seventeen years and that even after the new super highway is constructed a sufficient portion of this highway could be utilized to make this area more attractive to the travelling public.

Teachers were invited to act as chaperones. Sandwiches and cakes made by the members of the FHA Club were served.

Commissioner Proudly Congratulates Bell Company

Safety Commissioner Tom Bell has congratulated Bell Telephone and Telephone officials and men telephone firm's outstanding safety record.

Commissioner Scarbrough stated had been brought to his attention that the Mississippi Bell System fleet, the division's 4.68 accident rate figure is based on reportable motor accidents per 100 vehicles per 100,000 miles driven.

Underwood, also president of the Mississippi Safety Council, states that at Southern Bell no area of activity receives greater emphasis than safety.

In Mississippi, he said, company vehicles during 1958 traveled 289,000 miles per accident. The Bell System's national average was less than 90,000 miles per accident.

It would seem to me that it would be quite practical and desirable and in fact desirable to four lane U. S. Highway 90 in Hancock County to at least its intersection of Highway 43 as soon as possible. I had obtained the impression from you, in our various conversations, that this was your plan and that you had intended to do this. Therefore you can understand my surprise in reading your letter to Mr. Quint.

The mere fact that the present existing highway 90 is a four lane highway from Biloxi to Bay St. Louis, and will be shortly made into four lanes from Pascagoula to Ocean Springs, shows that this highway is used by more than those people who are merely passing through. I feel that the vast majority of the people now using Highway 90 will continue to utilize this same route when the new super highway is constructed, if they are provided with a good highway. With the size of the tourist industry on the Coast, thinking of practically abandoning Highway 90, is ridiculous. If the highway is made more attractive by providing four lane construction entirely across Hancock County, I am sure that even after the new highway is constructed that tourists will use this route in increasing numbers. As you well realize the purpose of Mr. Quint's letter to you was primarily in the interest of safety and a hasty study of the statistics concerning the accident rate on the present U. S. Highway 90 in Hancock County will bear out the fact that something should be done by way of added highway construction in order to reduce these accidents. In addition to the problem of attracting tourists of the Gulf Coast area, the safety problem is also most important.

I would certainly appreciate it if you would reconsider your decision, as outlined in your letter of March 18th, and I am sure that you will come to the conclusion that Highway 90 in Hancock County, should be a four lane highway, all of the way to the Louisiana line. However, in any event, the least that should be done is to four lane this highway to its intersection with Mississippi Highway 43.

Sincerely,
WALTER J. PHILLIPS.

Price Of Wool 62 Cents During Marketing Year

Chairman Fitzhugh Lee of the Hancock Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee reminded wool growers that the incentive price for wool, during the 1959 marketing year, which began April 1 and continuing through March 31, 1960, is 62 cents a pound, the same as during the current 1958 marketing year.

The Department of Agriculture,

Lee said, makes no recommendations as to whether wool should be sold before or after March 31, when the current marketing year ends. That is a discussion for the individual producer based on the market situation and other factors.

Under the payment method used in the wool program, the more a producer gets for his wool, the higher payment he receives. The payment rate is the percentage necessary to bring the national average farm price of wool up to the incentive level.

After the 1958 wool marketing year ends Mar. 31, farmers have 30 days to submit applications for payments to be made in the summer and fall of 1959. On sales after March 31, 1959, payments will be made in the summer and fall of 1960.

The changes in regulations were made by the President by Executive Order No. 10809.

Under the amended regulations, men who acquire deferments or exemptions on initial entry into the National Guard or Reserve keep those deferments or exemptions on transfer to another component so long as they continue to serve satisfactorily.

Some initial enlistments in the Reserve provide that men can discharge their military obligation by eight years of satisfactory service including not less than three months of active duty for training. The amended regulations also provide for the retention of this opportunity on transfer. These changes reflect provisions of Public Law 85-722, approved during the last Congress.

The amendments to the regulations also authorize the deferment of Guards men or Reservists for satisfactory participation in the Standby or Retired Reserve.

Previously, only satisfactory participation in the Ready Reserve was basis for deferment from induction.

Another amendment provides that a man who ceases to be a member of any Reserve component after six years of satisfactory Ready Reserve service shall be considered as having completed service.

Born 59 years ago in Covington County out from Collins — educated and farmed there — attended Bowling Green Business University — married to the former Katherine Rhymes of Monticello — four children, Shellie, 20; Leland, 28; Joe, 18; and Lake, 11.

BUSINESSMAN . . .

Major part of business career in fields of banking, finance and real estate — President of Leland Speed Company, either officer or director of the Standard Life Insurance Company, Mississippi Valley Title Insurance Company, Mississippi Steel Corporation, Jackson Ready-Mix, Dumas Milner Corporation, Wholesale Supply Company, and Eastover Corporation — all owned by Mississippians and all helping to build Mississippi.

CIVIC LEADER . . .

Established trust fund at Mississippi College in 1936 for purpose of assisting deserving students in completing their education — as Chairman of the Mississippi State Salvage Committee during World War II, Mississippi led the nation in salvage collections.

PUBLIC SERVANT . . .

Served as Mayor of Jackson from 1945-1948 — with the help of others was responsible for bringing many new industries to Jackson and Mississippi.

CHURCHMAN . . .

Refinanced his church's debt in 1933 at no cost to church — served as board chairman and chairman of finance committee — helped rebuild his old home church, Leaf River Baptist, after it burned — served as chairman of the Mississippi Baptist Foundation — headed fund-raising drives for Mississippi College and the YWCA.

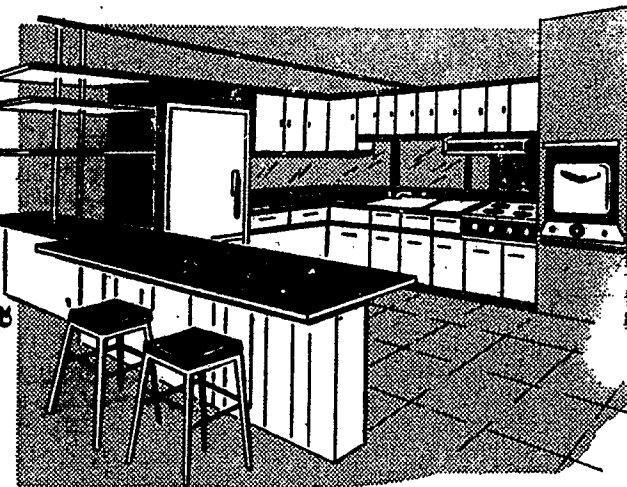

Leland Speed has an outstanding record and we, as Covington County friends, feel he is eminently qualified for the office he seeks and we urge your support of his candidacy.

TRAFFIC FATALITIES ARE DECLINING SHARPLY SAYS HIGHWAY PATROL

April traffic fatalities are declining sharply according to the Miss. Highway Patrol. Records at Highway Patrol headquarters in Jackson show only four highway deaths through mid-April 9. The corresponding toll for the first nine days of April last year was 15 killed. Public Safety Commissioner Tom Scarborough said this April reduction in traffic deaths is the first major downward trend in fatal accidents this year. He expressed optimism that the declining death rate might continue as the Patrol's accelerated enforcement program gains momentum. Several weeks ago, the Patrol head announced that radar would be worked night and day, and that every bush and hillside might hide a potential radar machine. This has been done. The state's traffic death rate is still up, however. The death count through mid-April 9 stood at 130 dead, 20 more deaths than was reported last year. In mid-March, however, this margin of increase stood at more than 30 dead.

Attend Meeting Of Salon Of 8 at 40

It was announced at the meeting that initiation of new members will be held at the Biloxi office of the United Gas Corporation at the May Meeting.

STATE'S TUNG NUTS FLOURISH

Mississippi ranks first in the tung nut industry. About one-half of all the tung nuts produced in the United States are grown in the gently rolling, sandy soil of South Mississippi between a point just below Hattiesburg and another point just above the Gulf Coast. Seventy-five per cent of all the tung oil now produced is being used for protective coating purposes in paints. However, there are many other uses for the oil, including its use in printing inks, brake linings, and for protective coatings in other products. The industry was started in Mississippi in the early 1900's. Four or five thousand persons are employed in the industry during the harvesting season. The harvesting work is seasonal, but many persons are employed all year for maintenance, replanting, and fertilizing.

INCREASE FOR AGED AND DISABLED

Welfare Commissioner W. E. Holcomb today announced that maximum assistance for the aged and disabled has been raised to $33 per month.

This action, approved by the State Welfare Board, was in keeping with legislation passed in 1958 giving the Board authority to make payments as high as $35 per month, providing funds are available. Payments made to the needy aged and disabled are on the basis of the unmet need a person has. In every case this need is established by the use of a budget showing both income and expenses of the individual.

Recent changes in Social Security payments brought about a reduction in the number of persons receiving Old Age Assistance and a change in the budget of many who were not removed from the rolls altogether. This made more funds available from those monies already appropriated for welfare services.
